

f

X

SPRING
FASHION:

Amazon reviewers love these 'flattering' pants — and they're on sale for under $25

They're available in more than 20 colours.

BAZAR | Harper's Bazaar

These are the most stylish pubs in London

Marie-Claire Chappet

March 27, 2024 · 4 min read

The most stylish London pubs The Walmer Castle

Nothing beats a good old fashioned boozier. Whether it is a languorous Sunday lunch with friends or a cosy candlelit dinner for two, nestled in a wood-paneled booth in the corner of a 19th-century watering hole, the pub is always a good idea.

But far from sticky floors, grubby carpets and blinking arcade games, the pub can be as stylish an option as any upscale bar. As the bank holiday weekend approaches, we round up five of the capital's chicest offerings for casual dining, romantic moments and family gatherings, from old favourites and historic institutions to the hottest new tables in town.

The Walmer Castle, Notting Hill

West London design studio Isabella Worsley reimagined this Notting Hill institution late last year, breathing some ineffable, understated glamour into an already well-regarded watering hole. Established in 1845, The Walmer Castle has

TRENDING

1. 'Nasty' norovirus on the rise in Canada: Symptoms to know and how to stay safe as contagious virus spreads at 'higher frequency'
2. Ontario sees more than 115 cases of eye damage after solar eclipse: What to do if you feel any pain
3. Canadian TV host Cheryl Hickey says lack of affordable care for seniors 'infuriates' her: 'You have no choice'
4. This 'figure-flattering' Amazon dress is a hot seller right now, and it's on sale for under $30 new era – under the stewardship of revered publican Jack Greenall – with unflappable charm and an easy sense of cool. The atmosphere is buzzy and warm and the interiors lean heavily on tradition, with a sprinkling of modern irreverence and a fair few iconic pieces of British art, by Yinka Shonibare and Cornelia Parker. The delicious menu is spearheaded by Luaan van der Watt and champions British seasonal produce; the chef works closely with cult butchers The Ginger Pig and seafood suppliers Flying Fish. A dreamier pub date one could not imagine.

f

X

✉

The Walmer Castle, 58 Ledbury Rd, London W11 2AJ

The Walmer Castle

The Holly Bush, Hampstead

Quite possibly the cosiest pub in London, what The Holly Bush lacks in size it makes up for in charm. The place is brimming with history, having operated since the 18th century, and it wears its history on its sleeve, with quirky crooked stairs, low ceilings and improbable layouts, walls plastered with oil paintings and a roaring fire crackling in the background during the winter months. The menu is a classy but simple take on pub classics, and the upstairs dining room

Story continues